

IN MEMORY

Kevin Michael Williams, of Shoreham, a victim of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center in New York City was laid to rest on Saturday, December 21 at the Wading River Cemetery. Mr. Williams' remains have recently been identified by the New York City Medical Examiner's office, allowing the family to bring closure to their personal tragedy with committal ceremonies. He is survived by his loving parents, Michael and Patricia Williams of Shoreham and was the dear brother of Jamie and Kelly Williams. Kevin was the cherished grandson of Roger and Pat Williams and Frieda Davis. He is also survived by his beloved fiancée Jillian Volk, of Wading River. Deacon Fred Finter of St. John the Baptist RC Church in Wading River officiated at the ceremony.
